

DARE NOT! DARE NOT! DARE NOT! DARE NOT! DARE NOT! DARE NOT! DARE NOT!

Dare not what? Why Kinsey dare not meet Sam. Byrns in joint discussion on the issues of the present campaign. Mr. Byrns has repeatedly challenged Mr. K. but the Light Weight has sneaked every time, knowing well the weakness of his cause and his inability to cope with Byrns. Notwithstanding this, the Republican leaders have been circulating the story that Byrns, at last growing tired of these lies, and desiring to secure some expression on the subject from Mr. Kinsey, one day last week, entered a Kinsey meeting at Ste. Genevieve and asked the Light Weight to divide time with him. The Light Weight refused. No, Mr. Kinsey dare not meet Sam. Byrns! No he dare not.

Campaign lies are flying thick. Democrats, all be sure and vote! Vote the ticket straight from Gantt down to Hull.

A vote for Ringo is a vote for Vest, "the noblest Roman of them all." After the 4th of next March it will be ex-Congressman Light Weight.

Senator Vest will be at Potosi next Friday and at Poplar Bluff Saturday. The Times says that Byrns' majority in St. Francois county will reach 700.

Democrats, vote and be sure and see that all your Democratic neighbors vote.

Democrats, don't scratch a name. Let the ticket go as it is from top to bottom.

A vote for Kinsey is a vote in approval of the corruption of the last session of Congress.

A vote for Democracy is a vote against the lawless extravagance of the late Republican Congress. We haven't heard of Mr. Kinsey giving any explanation of his vote in favor of the tax on binding twine. He can't explain.

Democrats, be at the polls on election day with the determination to make Iron county's majority for 1890 larger than that of 1888.

The Republicans have sent $1,300 into Washington county, $1,250 to Wayne and $750 to Carter. How much has been brought to Iron?

Mart. Clardy's majority in Iron county two years ago was 375. That was a dandy, but let's try and run Byrns' up to 400 next Tuesday.

The 4th of November will see Light Weight Kinsey returned to the oblivion from which he was accidentally yanked forth by the boodlers of 1888.

Every man whose name appears at the head of our columns will be elected next Tuesday and don't you forget it! Democrats are all winners this year.

The Ironton Grand Army Post says "we censure and condemn the action of Congressman Wm. M. Kinsey." It's a bitter dose but you have to take it don't you, Comrade May?

Let every Democrat constitute himself a committee of one to see that the full party vote is polled next Tuesday. It is our duty and privilege to make our majority a monstrous one.

Will the voters of the 10th District next Tuesday declare in favor of a man whose only record in Congress has been that of a nonentity and a willing tool of the capitalists who furnished the boodle to elect him? We think not. Kinsey is doomed.

Mr. Kinsey voted for the Force Bill, and in his speeches defends his vote on that infamous measure. The Democrat who would vote for him under these conditions is a queer sort of huckleberry, and they will gage more than one honest Republican.

A Democratic House will be a check on Radical Republican schemes; it can prevent appropriations for Federal marshals under the Force Bill; it can prevent further vicious legislation; and it will show the Party of Plutocrats that the people are yet masters.

A month and a half ago the REGISTER ventured the prediction that "Kinsey aren't meet Byrns on the stump," and the Republicans were exceeding wrath at such a statement. Recent events prove beyond question that Kinsey aren't meet Byrns and the REGISTER knew whereof it spoke.

Along with the other incidents of this campaign just bear in mind that Kinsey, notwithstanding all the blowing of the Republicans to the contrary, dare not meet Sam. Byrns on the stump and when they do happen to strike the same town at the same time Kinsey sneaks around like a whipped cur. A magnificent spectacle for a Congressman!

The REGISTER's inquiry asking the friends of Mr. Kinsey to point to a single act of that gentleman since he has been in Congress, which entitles him to the kindly consideration of the voters of the Tenth District, remains unanswered. The Light Weight is a mere figure-head, and, beyond providing offices for his henchmen, he has never heard from after he reached the capitol.

Shortly after he assumed the title of M. C., and while he was busy parceling the patronage in this section, Mr. Kinsey wrote in regard to an individual who was an applicant for the Poplar Bluff post-office: "He is a Filley man and is not to be considered," or words to that effect. "De ole man" is noted for certainty in securing revenge and maybe Mr. Kinsey won't find it out in the St. Louis wards when the votes are counted next Tuesday?

The Truth made the statement a couple of weeks since that Byrns secured the Union Labor nomination by paying for it. This is not true and cannot be proven. It was charged at the time that Kinsey had paid the railroad fare of all the St. Louis delegates to Bismarck and expected the convention to endorse him. Mr. Kinsey denies the statement, but the REGISTER has it on very good authority that he did buy the railroad tickets and fully expected the Union Labor nomination.

The more arrogant Republican speakers go about saying: "Supposing you do elect a Democratic House this year—what good will it do you?" The Senate will be Republican for ten years, the McKinley Bill is the law, and you can't undo it. In other words, they tell the people, "We've got you—help yourselves, if you can!" Perhaps this sort of talk will make abject slaves of free Americans—and then, perhaps, it won't. Fellow Democrats, down with the Plutocrats and Fat-Fryers!

Democrats, no trading! The order has gone forth from Mr. Filley, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, to his followers all over the State: "Trade everything for votes for our candidates for Representatives!" So, when a Republican approaches you, tell him you are onto his game, and that you are not such a blasted fool as to trade—especially, since you know you can elect your ticket, without Republican help. Your vote this year stands for honest government, personal liberty and your rights as a citizen. No Force Bills, no Robber Tariffs, no Trusts!

Maj. Pearce, the individual who made the Republican speech here a week ago Saturday night, was in Washington all during the session of the Fifty-First Congress lobbying for the tax on binder twine. Kinsey was his willing tool and when the Major pulled the strings the Light Weight danced. The Major, it seems, though is not ungrateful and is now spending all his time telling the farmers and laborers of the District that Kinsey is the man to represent them in Congress. Every vote Kinsey cast while in Congress was in favor of the classes as against the masses, and the voter is on to that fact, so Major Pearce's sophistry and ridiculous tariff rot and lies will have little or no effect. The people are on to him as well as they are on to Kinsey.

Republican "Logic."

Our manufacturers would perish without Protection. Protection makes wages high. Protection cheapens protected products.

Let a man who is not utterly devoid of brain study the above triangular proposition for ten seconds. That is all we ask; for if he doesn't discover the unprotected lie in it, in that length of time, he is too fanatical a Republican to see the truth in any shape or condition.

The Trouble at Ishpeming.

Special Dispatch to the Globe-Democrat. ISHPING, MICH., October 20.—The Barnum mine was idle to-day, and only a fraction of the regular force was out at the Lake Angelina. Many miners are leaving daily, and nearly a third of the strikers will seek work elsewhere. Many Cornishmen are returning to England, where wages are higher and men scarce, and others are going to various parts of the country. The Barnum is expected to go to work to-morrow morning.

To comment on the foregoing would be as to paint the lily white or gold refined gold.

The Good Dr. May.

Our most excellent friend, the good Dr. Edwin May, sets up a soul-barrowing figure of Injustice (with a big I), and then grows virtuously indignant over his own creation—even as, in the old time, the artist fell madly in love with the feminine ideal his pencil had limned. And what is it all about? Simply that Iron Post, No. 346, G. A. R., had passed a set of resolutions condemning the action of Mr. Kinsey in putting the board of examiners at De Soto, and the REGISTER published those resolutions after they had appeared in the city papers—as it had a right to do, seeing they were not copyrighted. But the good Doctor assumes that we regard them as "purely political," and therefore must know that their presentation, consideration and passing was "in violation of the rules of the Post." We know nothing of the kind. An organization that assumes to dictate to Congress the laws it shall pass—that, through a month-piece in national conclave assembly, declares itself "greater than Congress, greater than the President"—surely such an omniscient and omnipotent organization may presume to find fault with the action of one poor little Congressman upon a minor affair, without being convicted of going beyond the rules! The resolutions, if not containing political matter, were, after their adoption, deeply enveloped in politics. A copy was sent to the Post at De Soto, and to and behold! inside of three days that copy was in the hands of D. M. Parks, and the subject of a hurried consultation between him and Messrs. Gay, Schwab, Prince, and others here—not one of whom is a member of the G. A. R. What had they to do with the matter, except that the resolutions struck their little tin god in a very tender spot, and were "bad politics" from a Republican standpoint?

Does Doctor May deny the right of a Post to praise a Congressman for valuable public services to the old soldier? Has that not often been done? And if it is allowed to praise when praise is due, why not censure when censure is deserved? Go to, good Doctor! Thou art crochety and ill-advised.

The resolutions were duly passed by Iron Post, No. 346, G. A. R., a quorum being present. Even the good Doctor does not—dare not—deny this. It may be a "base business" to publish the fact, but would our good Doctor think so, if Mr. Clardy's name was substituted for Kinsey's? The publication hurts the good Doctor's fine-haired sensibilities, but it may not be a "base business" for all that.

But, says the good, innocent, disingenuous Doctor—speaking of the time of the passing of the resolutions: "Mr. Kinsey had not even been sworn into office, and had performed no official act." Dear Doctor, do you mean by this to intimate that he had nothing to do with the removal of the board to De Soto, and therefore the resolutions were unjust? We trust not, for that would not be disingenuous. The good Doctor knows that shortly after Harrison's inauguration, and long before Kinsey took his official oath, the old members of the board—two Democrats and one Republican—were removed, and three straight Republicans put in their places. If the good Doctor was a Democrat, he would not doubt call it a "base business;" but it was the work of Kinsey, not Clardy, and the good Doctor is a Republican, despite the Quays, Dudleys and Filleys, whose erratic wanderings from the path of righteousness must harrow the depths of his inmost soul.

What do you call "official acts?" The removal of Democratic postmasters and other officials and the appointment of Republicans in their places? Will you say that Mr. Kinsey had nothing to do with these matters prior to his going to Washington and taking his official oath? Again, go to—good Dr. May! We love you, but may not endorse you. When you come to sift this matter down, dear Doctor, isn't this about the size of it?—Mr. Kinsey, a good Republican, is running for Congress; you, being also a good Republican, want to see him elected; and all things standing in the way of his election you regard as distorted factors in the hideous total of what you are pleased to term, a "base business."

CORNEVILLE, MISS., Dec. 26, 1888. Messrs. Paris Medicine Co., Paris, Tenn.

Please send me three doz. of your Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. I was pleased with the lot I got from you last summer. The people were delighted with it. I gave your chill tonic to some children who were pale and swarthy and emaciated, having had chronic chills for months past one, of them for a year, and within three weeks after beginning with the chill tonic, they were hale and hearty, with red and rosy cheeks. It acted like a charm.

MANY A LIFE

HAS been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Pills. Travelers by land or sea are liable to constipation or other derangements of the stomach and bowels which, if neglected, lead to serious and often fatal consequences. The most sure means of correcting these evils is the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The prudent sailing-master would as soon go to sea without his chronometer as without a supply of pills. The chronic constipated and energetic in operation, Ayer's Pills leave no ill effects; they are purely vegetable and sugar-coated; the safest medicine for old and young, at home or abroad.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in health."—Mrs. C. E. Clark, Tewksbury, Massachusetts.

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for affections requiring a purgative, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colic and light fevers."—W. R. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"For several years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than upon anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These Pills are not severe in their action, but do their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect for the cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, and dyspepsia."—Capt. Mueller, Steamship Felicia, New York City.

"I have found Ayer's Cathartic Pills to be a better family medicine for common use than any other pills within my knowledge. They are not only very effective, but safe and pleasant to take—qualities which must make them valued by the public."—Jules Haniel, Portmer, Philadelphia, Pa.
